Green Light Games - "I'm good at everything except the things I can't do."

Compete for the glory of surviving the ultimate series of competitions... do NOT get eliminated. We have created game adaptations and age-appropriate competitions for these middle school players. Don't get caught moving during the red light, figure out the strategy, find some luck and YOU may prevail. Grab your friends and register today, space is limited to 50. Numbers will be assigned at random and pre-registrants will be sent information via postal mail prior to the games. Everyone will compete in every competition. Competitor with the highest cumulative points will win the coveted GLG trophy. A victory party will take place immediately after the winner is announced. Please eat lunch prior to arrival. Refreshments will be served. This is a rain or shine event.
